In pursuit of a dream

“In search of a better life” says article. $2/day. Mud or grass hut.
- No plumbing, no electric, no opportunity to have a better life. And then one day along came a dream- too good to be true. More money, more clothes, more food.

Thousands dream each day of coming to shores of America. Better life.

I am too! “thinking of a mansion” “if dreaming let me dream on”
I realize one day as a sinner I had no opportunity as servant of Satan: set my hours, set my pay, set my destination, set my behavior,

Then heard of place: no tears, no pain, no sorrow, no death, etc

Paid to get on-board

Article “paid about $450 each for the trip.” 94 pass x $450=
$42,300

Noted gambler $ Eph 2:8

Engine failed

“the boat had almost reached the Puerto Rican island of Desecheo... when its engine failed.” 2 days it ran fine. Not unusual to have trouble on a trip. Such is life. I have had engine trouble on my trip through life. I have sputtered more than once.

This not first time a ship in trouble: Mark 6 |

Captain jumped ship

Article motor failed then “the captain abandoned ship getting on another boat and saying he would return with help. He never did.”

You can serve the devil if you want to- I want a captain who goes down with the ship!

Where is the devil when you need him? If he all be cracked up to be dry out alcoholic- show me what you’ve got!! $ Go to projects and release dope addict- set him free. You got them in to it and jumped ship!!

I HAVE A CAPTAIN WHO STAYS ON BOARD

3 Hebrew- he will stay in the fire with you $ Daniel 6- he will spend the night with you $ Joshua 5- he will stay with you in battle

When I get engine trouble, he stays on board.

He won't jump ship when you fail in:

Health $ Finances $ Nerves $ Family

The Captain of this ship

This plan went awry. Almost there, but engine failed. Captain jumped ship.

"...for he hath said, I will never leave thee nor forsake thee." Hb 13:5
